As nations compete for preservation and advancements of their interests, for influence, for power, for authority to shape and govern the international order, they have varying tools in their national toolbox. Our job is to ensure that when they international actors consider reaching into that toolbox for a device that's labeled military conflict, they rightfully consider that an unwise choice. And should they make that choice, we must make them regret that decision.

The 501st is designed from the ground up to provide agile combat support, enable intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance, to support global strike missions and provide command control and communications for United States and NATO operations. We are combat support experts, enabling nine combatant commands. As Pathfinders we deliver on our commitments, we provide innovative solutions and exceptional support anytime anyplace, to pursue our mission of being the foremost agile combat employment hub in Europe and Africa and maintaining our lead against other great powers. Pathfinders are ready. We are combat proficient, and we prepare the battle space to accept forces and hold ground. We support our families on the home front and create a healthy, resilient culture that can maintain the fight for as long as necessary. Pathfinders are reliable. We build inner service, interagency and international partnerships, and we never fail in our responsibilities to our partners. Pathfinders are responsive. We are always ready to provide the combat support required to accomplish America's strategic interests around the globe. Every Pathfinder plays a critical role in the success of this strategy. Together, we light the way.
